

Fletcher's Guns Belch Death Into Vera Cruz!

Stubborn Resistance of Mexicans Results in Heavy Loss of Life to Them—3000 American Forces Now Ashore—Firing Renewed at Daybreak This Morning Was Reported to Be of Short Duration—President Wilson Sad-Hearted Because of Loss of Life.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—American operations at Vera Cruz took on renewed aspects of war today when Rear Admiral Badger landed more marines from the Atlantic fleet and the U. S. forces proceeded to take the entire city. While the orders of the President were being carried out to the letter, it was made apparent in conferences at the White House that the U. S. will "sit tight" at Vera Cruz, and that no further steps of pacification will be taken at this time. For the present it was declared on high authority that the forces at Vera Cruz would hold the city to convince Huerta that this government means business and that no action would be taken at Tampico, unless there is retaliatory action on the part of Huerta. No orders, it was stated, have been sent to the officers with reference to landing at Tampico, the only orders being sent there referring to the direction of ships sent to Vera Cruz. Admiral Badger will remain at Vera Cruz until further orders. No advancement further than Vera Cruz on the part of the U. S. forces, it was made plain, would be undertaken unless some overt act on the part of Huerta and his followers should precipitate further trouble and make more aggressive action necessary. Despite the purpose of the administration to confine the operations at Vera Cruz, the situation took on an ominous aspect, which indicated that more serious consequences cannot be avoided. Though not officially announced it was reported on high authority that Senator Alcala, Mexican Ambassador, has been directed by Huerta to ask for his passports and that the American Charge, O'Shaughnessy, at Mexico City, had been asked to leave. With this prospective breaking off of diplomatic negotiations together with the reports of aroused feeling among the Mexicans, the feeling is here that it may be necessary in the near future to resist actively attacks from Mexican Federal soldiers. Everything is in readiness for actual warfare, if it must come, and Congress today took the final step in justifying the President's course thus far.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—"I AM SORRY, TERRIBLY SORRY," WERE PRESIDENT WILSON'S FIRST WORDS WHEN NEWS OF THE LOSS OF LIFE IN TAKING VERA CRUZ FIRST REACHED HIM. TODAY THE PRESIDENT WAS SAD AND DISHEARTENED. AS HE WALKED SLOWLY TO HIS OFFICE THROUGH THE WHITE HOUSE HIS HEAD WAS BOWED AND HIS FACE A STUDY IN DEEP FEELING AND GRAVITY.

WAR ON IN EARNEST.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Consul Canada's latest dispatch which was filed at Vera Cruz early in the day and was given out at 11 a. m., says:

"Firing commenced at daybreak. Ships now shelling southern part of city. Large force landed from Admiral Badger's fleet before daybreak. Copies of proclamation issued by Rear Admiral Fletcher requesting at once the co-operation of the Mayor and municipal authorities in restoring order have been distributed, but have been unable as yet to get into communication with these officials.

"Major Butler's force of marines from Tampico are now ashore. Expect the city will be quiet later in the morning. Estimates of Mexicans killed and wounded up to last night approximately 150. Battleships here, Florida, Utah, Arkansas, Vermont, New Hampshire, New Jersey, South Carolina, transport Prairie and collier Orion. Transport Hancock, with marines reported due. American forces advance 8 a. m. under guns of war vessels to take city."

SNIPERS ATTACK U. S. MARINES.

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—Landing parties from the vessels of American fleet under Rear Admiral Badger were greeted with quite general firing from snipers when the boats approached the shore at 4:30 this morning.

ADVANCE TO TAKE THE CITY.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—The American forces commenced an advance to take the entire city of Vera Cruz at 8 o'clock under guns of the war vessels, according to a report from Consul Canada received at the State Department at 10 o'clock today.

ARMED FORCES GIVEN WILSON

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Without debate and without the formality of a roll call, the House today concurred in the Administration's Mexican resolution as adopted by the Senate which justifies the President in using the armed forces of the United States in securing amends for indignities suffered from the Nation of Mexico.

A few negative votes were heard on the Republican side when Speaker Clark put the question. After a 30-minute session the House adjourned until noon, when Speaker Clark will sign the resolution. It will go then to Vice President Marshall and should reach the White House late today.

THE PRESIDENT SIGNED THE RESOLUTION JUSTIFYING THE PROCEDURE OF THE ADMINISTRATION AT 2:05.

3000 U. S. MARINES ASHORE.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—American Consul Canada cabled under date of 9 a. m. today that he expected fighting to cease within an hour. The total American forces ashore numbered 3,000. They were well into the city and had the situation well in hand.

FLETCHER ISSUES PROCLAMATION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Rear Admiral Fletcher in his proclamation to the people of Vera Cruz called upon them in the interest of humanity to co-operate with him in restoring order. He said they could carry on their municipal government as before, and that the United States merely would hold the customs house and patrol the city.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BATTLE

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—Vera Cruz, after a day and night of resistance to the American forces gradually ceased to oppose today. Urged by Rear Admiral Fletcher, the city began the return to its normal civil government under its own local officials. The gradual cessation of hostilities was brought about through notes sent by Consul Canada to the Mexican officials, calling upon them for their co-operation. The first point from which the Mexicans fired was in the central part of the city. From the two houses forming the Diligencia Hotel, the sharpshooters directed a most troublesome fire. Housetop fighting which had been more or less continuous since the operations, became sharper this morning as soon as it became light enough to aim. Captain William Rush, commander of the battleship Florida had received orders not to effect any advance, but to hold the positions he had taken yesterday. Captain Rush had under his orders ashore nearly 3000 men, while off shore there were waiting his call as many more as he needed up to 9000. The Mexican troops belonging to the regular establishment had practically all left the city and the firing was carried out by armed citizens and straggling soldiers and policemen. As a hint of what might be expected later, the American forces sent across the southeastern part of the city a few shells from their 3 inch rifled cannon and shortly after 7 o'clock this morning these were followed by another series of shells. The personal reason for Rear Admiral Fletcher's hesitation to bombard, was that hundreds of non-combatants, including many women and children, who had been unable to get out of the central part of the city were crowded into the Diligencia Hotel building, from which most of the firing was done by the Mexicans.

NOT ANTICIPATING MUCH TROUBLE.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Members of the House Military Affairs Committee including Chairman Hay, decided today not to concur in the Senate amendments to the volunteer army bill, but to ask for a conference with the Senate. They did this believing that the need of raising a volunteer army for Mexican service is remote enough to justify delay caused by the conference.

PASSPORTS NOT DEMANDED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Senor Alcala, the Mexican Charge, said at the Embassy today he had received several messages from his government which indicated that he might be recalled at any moment, but that he had not yet been ordered to ask for his passports. He looked for such an order to come at any time, he said. Secretary Bryan denies that O'Shaughnessy has been asked by Huerta to leave Mexico.

O'SHAUGHNESSY SEEMS TO HAVE DISAPPEARED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Secretary Bryan at 1:15 said he had received no word from Charge O'Shaughnessy since Monday. The last message from Mexico City came from the American Consul late Tuesday forenoon.

Bryan appeared worried about O'Shaughnessy and today cabled him to report about conditions in Mexico City. The Secretary was sure, however, that if anything had happened to O'Shaughnessy, other legations in Mexico City would have, through their home government, informed the United States. Press reports have stated that telegraph wires from Mexico City to Vera Cruz were cut yesterday, which would probably account for lack of information.

Consul Canada in a dispatch to the State Department this afternoon said that he had so far been unable to establish communications with the American Embassy at Mexico City. He said a house to house search was being made through Vera Cruz, and many arrests of armed Mexicans were being made.

2000 FEDERALS ASK PROTECTION

By Associated Press.

Eagle Pass, Texas, April 22.—Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, was evacuated by the Federal garrison early today after a night of wild excitement.

This morning more than 2,000 refugees came to the American side of the Rio Grande for protection. General Guajardo's forces are now camped at Fuentes, three miles south of Piedras Negras, waiting for trains to transport them to Saltillo.

Crowds marched through the streets shouting "death to the gringos" until the cry became a chant in every street. Excitement became intense and then came the announcement that General Guajardo was preparing to evacuate. In a few minutes a rush for the American side of the river began. The volunteers who had just been proclaiming their intention of fighting the Americans soon were sending their families to the American side for protection. At 1 o'clock this morning, the international bridge was blocked by refugees. The bridge finally was closed by immigration officers. A company of U. S. soldiers and customs and immigration officers opened the bridge at dawn, and within three hours about 2000 persons had crossed and Piedras Negras was almost deserted.

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 22.—General Gustavo Maas, commander of the garrison at Vera Cruz, left the city in a carriage at noon yesterday, an hour after the first boatload of American marines landed from the warships. This was stated officially today and it was also declared that he had not been seen or heard from since. The commander's family followed him in another carriage. It was stated that the Mexican troops from the garrison of Vera Cruz were turned loose as soon as it was seen that the Americans were about to land and were told to act as they saw fit. Very few, if any, of their officers remained with the Mexican soldiers, whose operations were carried on without anyone to direct them.

AMERICANS IN FULL CONTROL

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—The White House gave out the following statement:

"Dispatches received from Consul Canada at Vera Cruz at 1:10 p. m., announced that the American forces are now in complete possession of the city; that apparently no fatalities among American and foreign non-combatants has occurred, and that firing had ceased, except for occasional picket shots.

MEXICANS ARE INFLAMED

By Associated Press.

Eagle Pass, Texas, April 22.—All Federal forces have been ordered by the Mexican General Maas to concentrate at Saltillo, to repel the "American Invasion." Last night when the people of Piedras Negras learned that American marines had occupied Vera Cruz, a dozen recruiting offices were opened and arms issued to volunteer companies as fast as organized. More than 1200 volunteers, it was said, enlisted during the evening.

TWO HUNDRED MEXICANS DEAD

Rear Admiral Fletcher Reports the Seizure of Mexico's Principal Port. After a Sharp Exchange With Mexican Garrison—Firing Still in Progress According to Latest Reports. Admiral Badger Arrives at Scene of Hostilities and is Ordered to Divide Fleet.

Washington, April 22.—American marines and bluejackets are now in possession of Vera Cruz, the principal port of Mexico.

The seizure of the city cost the Americans four lives and 20 wounded, while the Mexican losses have been estimated unofficially as between 100 and 200 men.

The first shedding of blood came when the Mexicans under General Maas opened fire on the American landing force from Admiral Fletcher's fleet. With the firing of these shots, the last hope of avoiding an open declaration of war disappeared. The United States will now be forced to move against Mexico with all the force of its tremendous military and naval power. No attempt was made here to conceal the tremendous consequences that are likely to follow the developments. It means the expenditure of millions of dollars and the risking of thousands of lives.

While no formal action was taken, it is believed by officials that Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy will be immediately recalled from Mexico City and the Mexican charge at Washington, Senor Algara, will be given his passports without delay.

The first news of the fighting at Vera Cruz and the seizure of the city came in this report from Admiral Fletcher, received at the navy department.

"Tuesday, in face of approaching northern, landed marines and sailors from Utah, Florida and Prairie seized custom house. Mexican forces did not oppose, landing but opened fire with rifles and artillery after our seizure of custom house. Prairie shelling Mexicans out of their positions. Desultory firing from housetops and streets. Hold custom house and section of city in vicinity of wharves and consulates. Casualties, four dead and 20 wounded."

This bulletin was followed in about an hour by another dispatch from Admiral Fletcher, which read: "Holding the vicinity of the railroad station and the yards and desultory firing continues; also holding the vicinity of custom house and cable office."

This dispatch was filed at Vera Cruz at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 6:50 o'clock, Vera Cruz time, Admiral Fletcher sent this dispatch: "Our men are firing only when fired at. We prepared a flag of truce with message to General Maas to cease firing or our big guns would be used. Now about 1,000 marines and sailors ashore. All business here suspended."

Soon after this the state department received the following dispatch from United States Consul Canada at Vera Cruz:

"Marines and bluejackets landed, immediately taking possession of cable office, postoffice, telegraph office and customs. Have also railroad, terminal and yards, with rolling stock. Notwithstanding the firing from housetops, we're masters of the situation so far, without the use of heavy guns. Firing all around the consulate, several shots having struck building. Our men simply defending themselves. Some resistance from naval forces soon silenced by guns of the Prairie. At this time reported four men killed, 20 wounded. Several Americans, including some women, who refused to go aboard refugee ship, now marooned in hotels within firing line. Trains from Mexico City did not arrive."

CAPTURE OF VERA CRUZ

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 22.—The first gun was fired in the war with Mexico at 1:05 Tuesday afternoon. Marines and bluejackets from the Utah, Florida and Prairie seized the custom house of Vera Cruz without opposition. Leaving a guard at the entrances to the custom house, the American forces took up positions commanding the streets leading toward the central square of the town, the Plaza de la Constitution. Machine guns and field guns were placed in position to cover all the streets converging on the square.

Admiral Fletcher's orders were that the landing forces should occupy these positions and make no attack on the Mexican troops unless they were attacked themselves.

Scarcely had the troops placed the guns in position when Mexican soldiers appeared on the housetops overlooking the square. Two shots rang out. Within a few minutes three volleys came from a Mexican force several hundred yards from the positions occupied by the Americans. These volleys were replied to immediately by the bluejackets and the firing became general.

When Rear Admiral Fletcher was informed of the attack on his men by the Mexicans he ordered the guns of the fleet to open fire on the positions occupied by the Mexicans.

Captain William M. Rush of the Florida located a large force of Mexicans firing on the United States troops from the towers of the Benito Juarez lighthouse and ordered his men to open fire on this point. Several three-inch guns were trained on the lighthouse and the tower was struck three times, silencing the enemy's fire.

Captain Bush signalled to the transport Prairie, on board of which was Admiral Fletcher, as follows: "Am being attacked from the right and rear north of the round; shell that district."

At the same time it was noticed that sharpshooters lined the roof of the Mexican Naval academy and were sniping the bluejackets. A three-inch gun of the Prairie was trained on the academy and the soldiers were forced to abandon their position.

The shooting by this time had become general all over the city. At 3 o'clock the United States consulate had been struck by several bullets.

Two American bluejackets and two marines were killed and nearly a score wounded. The dead are: Schumaker, coxswain of the Florida; Polsette, seaman of the Florida; Haggerty, private of the marines; another private, name not given.

The name of the wounded so far as is known are: C. J. Leahy, N. Schwartz, G. J. Cameron and J. F. Please, of the Florida; Gisburne, electrician of the Florida; Davidson, Drains and McMillan, privates of the Second regiment of marines from the Prairie.

Under the heavy firing warships the Mexicans were driven from the center of the city to the eastward, where they attempted to make a stand. The Prairie turned her guns to the point where the Mexicans were gathering and forced them to take refuge in the narrow streets thereabout.

BORDER MEN FEAR RAPINE AND MURDER

Washington, April 22.—Fear for American lives in the border towns has increased. Secretary of War Garrison admitted the receipt of two telegrams from places along the border expressing citizens' fears that murder and rapine from inflamed Mexicans in cities will overtake them. These messages were immediately dispatched to General Bliss with orders to investigate and report. The secretary of war said he had received several such messages, although frequently investigation had developed the fact that citizens' fears had little ground. In actual cases of danger, however, he has ordered quick action to prevent any Mexican onslaught.

FOIL PLOT TO KILL HUERTA

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—That a plot is under way in Mexico City to assassinate General Huerta, dictator of Mexico, was revealed here by Felipe Armenta, Constitutionalist representative, and Adolfo Carrillo, consul in Los Angeles, for the Constitutionalist. Armenta displayed a telegram from Mexico City stating that Huerta was going to be killed within a few days and by the hands of his own federals.

"It means," said Armenta, "that the federals are becoming tired of Huerta's dictatorship. He is becoming dangerous to them. They will put him out of the way. It will not be long. Developments are going to appear very rapidly, but now is no time to make them public."

Both Armenta and Carrillo say they do not believe Huerta's life will be spared another week.

BRITISH ARE KEEPING OUT

London, April 22.—The foreign office steadily adheres to its attitude in regard to Mexico which was adopted at the very outset of the trouble between that country and the United States. Additional proof that no change in this attitude is contemplated is furnished by the fact that Sir William George Tyrrell, private secretary to Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, accompanied King George and Queen Mary and the foreign minister to Paris. Sir William would not have left London if any action was contemplated by Great Britain. The foreign office does not expect that there will be an anti-foreign outbreak in Mexico.

REBELS SEIZE U. S. CAVALRY?

Tombstone, Ariz., April 22.—Fifteen members of Troop B, Tenth cavalry, are being held by Constitutionalist troops, at a point just below the border between Naco and Hereford, Ariz. The troops, who were on border patrol, wandered across the line without being aware of the fact. It is reported they were surrounded and taken prisoners by a large rebel detachment. Troop A, Tenth, left Fort Huachuca to investigate.

SPAIN'S DESIRE ONE FOR PEACE

Madrid, April 22.—The government's interest in the Mexican situation is naturally predominantly concerned with the fate of Spaniards in that country. Premier Dato expressed his gratification at the willingness of the United States to protect the subjects of Spain. More than 600 of these Spaniards have been repatriated on the initiative of Spain, but the safety of many of them depends upon Generals Carranza and Villa, and for this reason the intervention of the United States is of paramount importance. Senor Dato said the prospect of armed action by the United States and Mexico causes the greatest concern here, as the consequences are incalculable. The government, he said, earnestly desires a peaceful solution of the trouble.

Business and the Law

In the shifting of the burdens as humanity travels along the highway of time and year by year makes progress toward conditions better for man collectively and better for man individually, one extreme follows another.

When the burdens of society become too heavy for the individuals—when business becomes so prosperous that it oppresses the individual—the other extreme follows and the burden is shifted from the individual business.

Only a few years ago business was the all-important subject of consideration. Toward its preservation and extension all efforts were directed.

Now we are perilously near, if we have not already reached, the other extreme.

Business and property have not only been denied beneficial legislation, but have had directed against them so many regulatory legislative enactments that the attitude of society toward business might be properly characterized as hostile.

There is no denying the claim that big business as it was conducted a few years ago was a positive detriment to the individual and it was essential that something be done for the individual if he was to preserve his identity.

Many students of political affairs, however, believe that unless business interests are given more favorable consideration by the legislators and the executives, an era of business depression, which will be disastrous alike to business and to the people generally, cannot be avoided.

The time has come to encourage rather than to discourage business, say the men who have watched these eras come and go and who have lived through times of business depression and had the opportunity to study the cause in the great school of experience.

Great business interests too much hampered and hedged about by regulatory provisions cannot, in the very nature of things, expand.

It is seriously contended that right now there exist too many restraints upon business activity, and that the people, through legislation, have already reached the limit which business can endure without serious effect on its growth.

Few thinking people will dispute the assertion that it is time to listen to the demagogue and that the time is here right now when men must put patriotism above policies, get right down to existing conditions, find out to just what extent the people have gone in regulating and hedging about business enterprise and determine whether or not we have not gone too far.

Any man who thinks business can endure many more burdens in the way of hostile legislation is mistaken.

The time to cast up accounts, at least, is here and sober minded men must take the helm of the ship of State and direct its course if we would prevent business depression.

Business has a tremendous task to adjust itself to new conditions—conditions which the great majority of people believe will prove highly beneficial as soon as the readjustment to conditions has been accomplished.

It would be well, practical men of affairs believe, to call a halt in the enactment of regulatory laws until business can adjust itself to those we already have, at least.

Poetry For Today

THE FLEET SAILS.

Down through the smother of the gray mist; through the dull-shot silver morning,
We watched a proud ship steaming with a ribbon in her hair,
And the men's red blood beat faster in their veins to see her there.
And we said: "She flies the flag that lifts for no man's scorn!"

Wind shook the water into music, as a great hand shakes a zither,
And suddenly we saw the flag flame through the torn mist's lining.
And tears were in the women's eyes, but the men's eyes were shining,
And we said: "She sails for honor's sake, so God go with her!"

Out to the sky's gold and the blue sea, and the wide arms o' the morning,
We saw our proud ship steam away with all her grim guns sleeping,
And the women's hearts were breaking slow, but the men's hearts were leaping!

And we said: "She is the thing that lives for no man's scorn!"

45 ARE DEAD MANY MISSING

Toll of Battle Between Militia and Striking Miners.

LUDLOW DISTRICT A SHAMBLES

Troops Drive Strikers From Their Tent Colony and It Is Charged Fired It, Burning Many Women and Children to Death—Latest News of the Great Industrial War in the Colorado Mining District.

Trinidad, Colo., April 22.—Forty-five dead, more than two-thirds of them women and children, a score missing and more than 20 wounded, is the toll in tragedy and death known to have been taken by the 14-hour battle which raged with uninterrupted fury between state troops and striking coal miners in the Ludlow district.

The militia, which drove the strikers from their tent colony and, it is charged, fired it, involving thereby the greatest loss of life, are preparing for a machine gun sortie from their position along the Colorado & Southern railroad tracks at either side of the Ludlow station.

On the surrounding hills, sheltered by rocks and boulders, 400 strikers await their coming, while their ranks are being swelled by grim-faced men who tramped overland in the dark, carrying guns and ammunition from the neighboring union camps. Allen Greeks and Austrian miners have appealed to their consular representatives for protection, and John McLenon, president of the local union district, wired the Red Cross in Denver to be prepared to render aid.

On the outcome of the engagement today may depend the fate of the strike. Both sides face it as a battle to the death with no thought of quarter asked or received.

No train service through the war zone is permitted. A command of the troops is hemmed in on three sides by the strikers' lines, which extend back three miles. Through this cordon only the dead wagon is allowed to pass.

In Trinidad the situation is no less acute. Men throng the streets about the union headquarters with the picture of their flaming tents still before their eyes and demand guns with which to work vengeance upon the militia, whom they hold responsible for the destruction of their homes and the death of their women and children.

The Ludlow camp is a mass of charred debris, and buried beneath it is a story of horror unparalleled in the history of industrial warfare.

In the pits which have been dug for their protection against the rifle fire, the women and children died like trapped rats when the flames swept over them. One pit uncovered disclosed the bodies of 10 children and two women. Military authorities here admitted they did not know how great the loss of life may have been.

GIRL IS A CANDIDATE.

Oregon Woman Wants to Be County Treasurer—Her Platform.

Astoria, Ore. — Though two women have thus far declared their intention to run for county offices, only one has filed. Miss Kate Kelly, scarcely out of her teens, daughter of William Kelly, who is expected to file for the nomination of state senator on the Democratic ticket, filed her petition with the county clerk, announcing her candidacy for county treasurer.

Miss Kelly two years ago managed her father's campaign for councilman. Kelly lost by twelve votes, though he was running against an experienced politician and did not enter the race until the last minute.

In her platform she says, "If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office perform the duties of such office faithfully and with due regard to the interests of all the people of Clatsop county." As her policy she declared for "honesty, efficiency and economy, prompt and courteous treatment to all."

Mary McTae is circulating a petition, for county clerk on the Democratic ticket.

ALL EQUINE LOVERS PLEASED WITH SHOW

Second Annual Horse Show Closed
Last Night With Another Large
Audience in Attendance.

AWARDS ARE MADE AMID GREAT APPLAUSE

Fire Animals Exhibited and Splendid
Entertainment Offered Fills Crowd
With Enthusiasm—Sale Opens Today With Hundreds Consigned—
The Herald Furnishes News of Mexican Trouble.

Reaching its climax in Tuesday
night's performance, the 1914 Horse Show goes down in the annals of past
events a pronounced success—a success both from the viewpoint of bringing into added prominence Fayette county's rank in the horse world and that of giving distinctive entertainment to hundreds who came from a wide radius of territory.

As if to atone for the belated winter of Monday, Tuesday flooded the earth with golden sunshine and was an ideal day for the show. Many
from a distance prevented from attending Monday by the weather,
came Tuesday and the huge pavilion
held practically as large a crowd as
on the previous night.

The matinee attendance was much larger.

At both performances the latest
Associated Press dispatches, in regard to the Mexican situation, received at the office of The Daily Herald were read. With each announcement of a bulletin received, the hush of fearful expectancy fell upon the audience.

In the afternoon, when the first bulletin brought word that the U.
S. fleet had been ordered to take Vera Cruz, Price's band burst forth with
the "Star Spangled Banner," while,
simultaneously the crowd rose, all
along the speedway. Three cheers
for Uncle Sam followed and the band
followed with America, the people
swayed with patriotism. But at night when came the first unofficial news of the toll of war, four of our men dead and twenty wounded, there
was only silence, the mass of people
saddened as one man.

The splendid music of Price's Premier band added greatly to the success of the show and the numbers of Tuesday night were judged the best
of the show, especially popular was
the introduction of singing to the band accompaniment.

The clever work of the Nelson
Comiques made a decided hit at all
the performances, and the troupe was presented with a cup at the close of
their last entertainment.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

More cups went to local exhibitors
on Tuesday than on Monday.

Horses from the Chas. Allen stables
especially the Bond fillies, were big winners Tuesday: afternoon and evening, taking either a cup or ribbon in every event entered.

Miss Anne Bierley, of Columbus,
who showed some of the finest horses
of the show, was given a generous
share of the evening's applause, her
superb driving arousing enthusiasm.

Frank Jamison, the plucky little son of Mr. B. F. Jamison, and his clown pony, also came in for great applause. The Jamison pony won
cups in every pony event.

The features of the afternoon show

were the saddle class and artillery
remount class. The judges found it very hard to make a decision in the saddle class, the cup finally going to Musselman and Wood, Franklin, Ind.

The big field of exhibitors in the Remount class was cut down by the ruling out of all but three, which
were considered by the judges, eligible to the requirement of the army.

The classes of the evening were
among the best of the show.

Horsemen generally pronounced,
Mabel Stafford, entered by W. E. Stafford, of New Carlisle, winner of two ribbons, one of the handsomest show
mares ever on the speedway.

The Ohio Horse Sales Co. are receiving congratulations generally upon the show, and the prospects for
the greatest sale since its organization.

The sale opened this morning with Auctioneer Pease in the stand. Having 375 horses to sell in three days
the sale begins at 9 a. m. continuing
to 5 p. m., and again in the evening
at 7 o'clock. This is the only possible
way to dispose of such a large number of horses in such a short time.

Active in the management of both
show and sales are W. J. Galvin,
manager of the Ohio Horse Sales Co.;
Chas. Allen, owner of the sales' barn;
Judge Rell G. Allen, secretary of the Ohio Horse Sales Co., since its organization in 1912; Frank Woodland,
editor of the Horse Journal, and Howard C. Allen.

MANY FARMERS WATCH EXPERT

Pruning and Spraying Demonstration
Held on A. L. Smith Farm in Paint
Township Yesterday Draws Quite a Crowd of Interested Farmers Who
Profit by Instructions Given by Mr.
Cruikshank.

A large number of deeply interested farmers attended the pruning and spraying demonstration given on the
A. L. Smith farm in Paint township,
Tuesday.

The demonstration which was given
under the direction of the College
of Agriculture, Ohio State university,
was in charge of Mr. R. B. Cruick-
shank, who personally directed the operations. After an interesting talk
at the beginning of the work in which
he explained in detail the fundamental principles of pruning and spraying, Mr. Cruickshank then demonstrated in the orchard how these operations should be carried out.

In outlining a plan for the season's
spraying operations, the expert said
in part: "Orchard groups are divided into two great insects—biting insects and sucking insects. The biting insects are killed by the use of stomach poisons such as arsenate of lead and paris green. These are mixed at the rate of two or three pounds
to 50 gallons of water. This strength
is effective against the apple worm,
curculio, caterpillars, slugs, and other chewing insects. For best results against the apple worm and curculio
the spray must be applied immediately after the fall of the blossoms. For the sucking insects such sprays as lime-sulfur, kerosene emulsion and whale-oil soap are used. They are usually applied during the dormant
season.

"The two chief sprays used against orchard diseases are lime-sulfur and Bordeaux mixture. The lime-sulfur is used for the dormant season and
early spring sprays. The apple scab,
peach leaf curl, and sooty fungus are
the chief diseases fought with this spray. The Bordeaux mixture is a stronger fungicide and more risky to use but must take the place of lime-
sulfur in fighting the various summer rots of the apple. Bordeaux mixture is made by taking four pounds
of copper sulphate or blue vitrol and dissolving it in 25 gallons of water.
In another vessel make a paste of
four pounds of stone lime, or six
pounds of hydrated lime, in 25 gallons of water and then unite the two mixtures. It is important that this spray be used the same day it is made. Bordeaux mixture is used as fungicide, for the eradication of plant diseases, such as the bitter rot and Arkansas blotch.

"For the soft rots of the peach,
plum and cherry the self-boiled lime-
sulfur has proved the best spray.
Eight pounds of flowers of sulfur are slowly mixed with eight pounds of
good stone lime, which is being slak-
ed. The heat from the slaking lime bolls the sulfur. In about 15 minutes the solution is cooled by adding enough water to make 50 gallons.
This is applied about one month after
the petals drop and again about one
month before the fruit ripens."

The demonstration was given in
one of the best fruit neighborhoods
in the county, and was of great benefit to those who were present and
witnessed the work and heard the instructions offered by Cruickshank.

fered a painful injury of one leg
while engaged in playing ball on the English addition diamond Tuesday
evening.

The lad was making a plunge for
"home" when his leg struck the home

metal or stone, and one knee was so
badly cut and bruised that the limb
was useless for some time.

Climbing upon his wheel the
plucky lad used one foot in riding
home, and it was necessary to help him off the wheel. He believed his leg was broken, until a physician examined it and found that the bones

BLAZE DAMAGES CURREN RESIDENCE

Fire, starting in the roof of the Mrs. John Curren residence on West Court street, caused considerable damage to both house and household goods, about nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

The blaze is believed to have been caused from a defective flue and the fire was gaining headway very rapidly when the fire department was summoned by neighbors who discovered the flames and smoke issuing from the building.

Some difficulty was experienced in reaching the fire, but within a few minutes after the stream began playing on the house the danger of destroying the building was past, and after much work the last ember was extinguished.

The water did much damage to the interior of the building and to furniture, while the flames damaged the roof.

NEW HOLLAND POSTOFFICE IS ROBBED DURING NIGHT

Thieves Use Snuff to Prevent Bloodhounds From Taking Their Trail, and Leave the Office After Obtaining 45c and Refusing to Touch the Safe Containing Several Hundred Dollars Worth of Stamps—Local Talent Suspected.

Snuff and candles played an important part in the robbery of the New Holland postoffice about one o'clock Wednesday morning, and the thieves evidently made the purchase of both articles during the past few days. This may lead to the arrest of the robbers.

When Postmaster Wm. Briggs went to the postoffice at New Holland early Wednesday morning a glance was sufficient to tell him that the office had been visited by robbers during the night, but he was greatly relieved to discover that the only thing missing was 45c in change which had been removed from the cash register, while several hundred dollars worth of stamps had not been touched.

The burglars first tried the rear

door, using a stick to pry it open, but failing in this they entered the front door, evidently using a skeleton key.

Once inside they made a thorough search of the office, using candles to light their way. The safe had been tampered with, but no effort made to crack it. Several sheets of stamps, left outside the safe, were not touched, and the man or men had withdrawn without obtaining anything but the 45c from the cash register.

Before leaving the office the burglars scattered snuff all over the floor, and then scattered a quantity about the outside in order to prevent bloodhounds from taking up the trail. A crumpled white paper, containing a quantity of the snuff had been thrown aside.

While no definite clew was left behind for the New Holland authorities to work upon, they have reason to believe that the guilty parties are perfectly familiar with the surroundings, and probably reside in New Holland.

Postmaster Briggs has reported the robbery to the postoffice department, and a detective will be placed upon the case at once.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR INSPECTION HELD

Garfield Commandery Gives Banquet Following Annual Inspection and an Evening of Pleasure is Enjoyed—Large Number Attend First Inspection Held in Handsome Lodge Home in the Masonic Temple.

Notably a red letter occasion in Garfield Commandery No. 28, K. T., was the annual inspection and banquet Tuesday night.

It was pronounced by the inspecting officer, Deputy Grand Commander Nelson Williams, of Hamilton, one of the largest and best inspections with which he had ever been connected, and Garfield Commandery was entitled to great credit for its splendid work, handicapped as it had been by the burning, re-building and furnishing of the present beautiful Temple.

The inspector was surprised at the splendid progress made in the work and will make enthusiastic report to the Grand Commandery.

Eighty-five Sir Knights were seated for the banquet, served by the ladies of the Order of Eastern Star, and one of the most perfect banquets they have ever served. The long tables, beautifully decorated in scarlet carnations and greenery, were arranged in the form of a cross.

There were no toasts, the work of the evening demanding the time.

Eminent Commander Elmer Klevner, had the admirable work in supervision, Warden W. T. Holmes assisting, in charge of the music. Dr. L. P. Howell was the evening's soloist.

Sir Knight Walter Hamilton had the splendid floor work in charge, with Sir Knight A. M. Bush, captain of the finely trained drill squad.

The Temple degree was conferred upon Amos Thornton, Jr., whose grandfather, Mr. Amos Thornton is the oldest member of Fayette lodge. The Knight of Malta work put on by Sir Knights A. T. Baldwin and Lee Des Martin was highly commended by the inspecting officer.

Sir Knights were present from Jeffersonville, Greenfield, Mt. Sterling and New Holland.

Miss Maude Cox, of Parretts, was the guest of her sister, Miss Minnie Cox and Dr. Rankin for the Horse Show.

SENATE ADOPTS WAR RESOLUTION

Root Makes Most Striking Address of the Session.

ASSAILS THE ADMINISTRATION

Proposition Justifying the President's Course and Method of Solution of the Mexican Situation Both Attacked and Defended in the Upper Chamber — Bitterness Marks the Debate—Senate Substitute to Pass.

Washington, April 22.—The resolution from the senate committee on foreign affairs, justifying the use by the president of the army and navy in Mexico solely on ground of Tampico insult to flag, passed the senate, 72 to 13. Many who were opposed yielded at the last minute on ground that country practically is at war, and the president should be supported. The resolution will go to the house and will be a substitute for the resolution originally presented by President Wilson, aimed at Huerta by name.

News of the killing of American seamen and marines in the streets of Vera Cruz served further to inflame the members of the senate. The amendment of Senator Lodge (Mass.) expressing in a new preamble the feeling that it was not so much the course of the de facto government of Mexico as the deplorable general conditions in all parts of the stricken republic, the killing and despoiling of Americans and the state of anarchy there existing, which made necessary such action on the part of the president, is gaining supporters.

At the same time it is evident that, regardless of the protracted discussion of the resolution, it will be the resolution as prepared by the senate committee on foreign relations and not the personal attack upon Victoriano Huerta framed at the White House and introduced in the house of representatives by Chairman Flood of the committee of foreign affairs, which eventually would pass.

The delay of the senate is proving a grave embarrassment to the administration. At the war department it is frankly admitted that the debate is holding up action by that department of the government.

The most striking speech of the whole debate was made by Senator Root of New York, who attacked the administration's foreign policy in harshest terms. The speech of Senator Root held the attention of the senate for more than an hour. As he proceeded, railing at the Democrats for alleged conspicuous inefficiency and deplorable inaptitude in their handling of the international relations of the United States, some of the Democratic members of the senate squirmed in their seats.

Senator Kern of Indiana, the Democratic floor leader, endeavored to obtain unanimous consent to vote upon the resolution at 1 a. m. Immediately Senator Bristow, Republican of Kansas, objected. He said that there were many senators who desired to speak upon the resolution now pending.

ENEMY HOLDS MANY YANKEES

Vera Cruz, April 22.—The second section of the train from Mexico City, filled with refugee Americans, and a special train of refugees, have both been held up somewhere along the road to Vera Cruz, presumably by General Maas. There are several hundred American in Mexico City, including the charge d'affaires, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, his wife and child. Mexicans here protest vehemently against the suggestion that the passengers on the stalled trains may be badly-treated.

THEN AND NOW

SEVENTY-SIX years ago today the first vessel to cross the Atlantic ALL the way under steam arrived in New York harbor at 10 o'clock at night. It was the Sirius, a coastwise steamer chartered from an English company by Junius Smith, a Connecticut Yankee to beat out another British vessel, the Great Western, for the glory of being the first real trans-Atlantic steamship. The Great Western, which had left Europe three days later, arrived in New York only a few hours behind the Sirius.

The Savannah had crossed the Atlantic nineteen years before but she had used steam only during three days of the voyage. The Sirius made the trip from Cork, Ireland, in eighteen days, making the last of her historic run by burning her extra spars and forty-three barrels of resin. A great crowd gathered at Jones' wharf to celebrate the arrival and huge bonfires were built along the waterfront to light up the boat.

NOW.

Today a trans-Atlantic sailing

ship is as rare a sight in almost any port as was a steamer seventy-six years ago. Today more than half of all the world's vessels are propelled by steam. It has been an important factor in the successful penetration of the two polar regions, it has carried a great fleet of American battleships around the world, and almost daily with engineering improvements it has established some new speed record.

A modern swift mail steamship can make nearly five hundred miles a day. Using the Suez Canal and the new gate-way at Panama, such a ship could encircle the earth in nearly a straight line in less than fifty days—a voyage of 23,000 miles.

The old Sirius in her day would have had to encircle Africa and South America and make a journey of nearly 35,000 miles. At the rate at which she made her first trip across the Atlantic she would have required practically seven months.

Relief From Constipation

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark-brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O. Advt.

No further casualties on American side. No attempt made during the night to approach center of city. Of wounded on American side, four are serious. Admiral Fletcher hesitated to approach the city, but Mexican sharpshooters made the use of artillery almost imperative to prevent sacrificing American lives.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS MAY VOLUNTEER

The local situation in connection with the Mexican trouble is rapidly assuming an aspect which looks very much like a large number of volunteers from this city and county will offer their services to Uncle Sam to carry the flag to the ramparts of the country whose dictator refuses to salute Old Glory after repeated insults had been offered it.

A special meeting of the Spanish-American war veterans has been called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock, to be held at the armory, and it is claimed that the meeting is called with a view to ascertaining how many will volunteer for service if their services are required in the evident approaching conflict.

Quite a number of the members of former Company E, 4th O. V. I., are expected to attend the meeting. Company E, when organized for service in the Spanish-American war, was under the command of Captain Wm. L. Vincent.

In addition to the meeting tonight it is announced that there is every indication that within the next few days a recruiting station will be opened in this city, and a large number of enlistments are anticipated.

One of his linguistic feats is to reel off a sentence of twenty-six words, each word beginning with the successive letters of the alphabet, like this:

Fletcher's Guns Belch Death Into Vera Cruz!

Stubborn Resistance of Mexicans Results in Heavy Loss of Life to Them—3000 American Forces Now Ashore—Firing Renewed at Daybreak This Morning Was Reported to Be of Short Duration—President Wilson Sad-Hearted Because of Loss of Life.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—American operations at Vera Cruz took on renewed aspects of war today when Rear Admiral Badger landed more marines from the Atlantic fleet and the U. S. forces proceeded to take the entire city. While the orders of the President were being carried out to the letter, it was made apparent in conferences at the White House that the U. S. will "sit tight" at Vera Cruz, and that no further steps of pacification will be taken at this time. For the present it was declared on high authority that the forces at Vera Cruz would hold the city to convince Huerta that this government means business and that no action would be taken at Tampico, unless there is retaliatory action on the part of Huerta. No orders, it was stated, have been sent to the officers with reference to landing at Tampico, the only orders being sent there referring to the direction of ships sent to Vera Cruz. Admiral Badger will remain at Vera Cruz until further orders. No advancement further than Vera Cruz on the part of the U. S. forces, it was made plain, would be undertaken unless some overt act on the part of Huerta and his followers should precipitate further trouble and make more aggressive action necessary. Despite the purpose of the administration to confine the operations at Vera Cruz, the situation took on an ominous aspect, which indicated that more serious consequences cannot be avoided. Though not officially announced it was reported on high authority that Senor Algara, Mexican Ambassador, has been directed by Huerta to ask for his passports and that the American Charge, O'Shaughnessy, at Mexico City, had been asked to leave. With this prospective breaking off of diplomatic negotiations together with the reports of aroused feeling among the Mexicans, the feeling is here that it may be necessary in the near future to resist actively attacks from Mexican Federal soldiers. Everything is in readiness for actual warfare, if it must come, and Congress today took the final step in justifying the President's course thus far.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—"I AM SORRY, TERRIBLY SORRY," WERE PRESIDENT WILSON'S FIRST WORDS WHEN NEWS OF THE LOSS OF LIFE IN TAKING VERA CRUZ FIRST REACHED HIM. TODAY THE PRESIDENT WAS SAD AND DISHEARTENED. AS HE WALKED SLOWLY TO HIS OFFICE THROUGH THE WHITE HOUSE HIS HEAD WAS BOWED AND HIS FACE A STUDY IN DEEP FEELING AND GRAVITY.

WAR ON IN EARNEST.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Consul Canada's latest dispatch which was filed at Vera Cruz early in the day and was given out at 11 a. m., says:

"Firing commenced at daybreak. Ships now shelling southern part of city. Large force landed from Admiral Badger's fleet before daybreak. Copies of proclamation issued by Rear Admiral Fletcher requesting at once the co-operation of the Mayor and municipal authorities in restoring order have been distributed, but have been unable as yet to get into communication with these officials.

"Major Butler's force of marines from Tampico are now ashore. Expect the city will be quiet later in the morning. Estimates of Mexicans killed and wounded up to last night approximately 150. Battleships here, Florida, Utah, Arkansas, Vermont, New Hampshire, New Jersey, South Carolina, transport Prairie and collier Orion. Transport Hancock, with marines reported due. American forces advance 8 a. m. under guns of war vessels to take city."

SNIPERS ATTACK U. S. MARINES.

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—Landing parties from the vessels of American fleet under Rear Admiral Badger were greeted with quite general firing from snipers when the boats approached the shore at 4:30 this morning.

ADVANCE TO TAKE THE CITY.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—The American forces commenced an advance to take the entire city of Vera Cruz at 8 o'clock under guns of the war vessels, according to a report from Consul Canada received at the State Department at 10 o'clock today.

ARMED FORCES GIVEN WILSON

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Without debate and without the formality of a roll call, the House today concurred in the Administration's Mexican resolution as adopted by the Senate which justifies the President in using the armed forces of the United States in securing amends for indignities suffered from the Nation of Mexico.

A few negative votes were heard on the Republican side when Speaker Clark put the question. After a 30-minute session the House adjourned until noon, when Speaker Clark will sign the resolution. It will go then to Vice President Marshall and should reach the White House late today.

THE PRESIDENT SIGNED THE RESOLUTION JUSTIFYING THE PROCEDURE OF THE ADMINISTRATION AT 2:05.

3000 U. S. MARINES ASHORE.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—American Consul Canada cabled under date of 9 a. m. today that he expected fighting to cease within an hour. The total American forces ashore numbered 3,000. They were well into the city and had the situation well in hand.

FLETCHER ISSUES PROCLAMATION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Rear Admiral Fletcher in his proclamation to the people of Vera Cruz called upon them in the interest of humanity to co-operate with him in restoring order. He said they could carry on their municipal government as before, and that the United States merely would hold the customs house and patrol the city.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BATTLE

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—Vera Cruz, after a day and night of resistance to the American forces gradually ceased to oppose today. Urged by Rear Admiral Fletcher, the city began the return to its normal civil government under its own local officials. The gradual cessation of hostilities was brought about through notes sent by Consul Canada to the Mexican officials, calling upon them for their co-operation. The first point from which the Mexicans fired was in the central part of the city. From the two houses forming the Diligencia Hotel, the sharpshooters directed a most troublesome fire. Housetop fighting which had been more or less continuous since the operations, became sharper this morning as soon as it became light enough to aim. Captain William Rush, commander of the battleship Florida had received orders not to effect any advance, but to hold the positions he had taken yesterday. Captain Rush had under his orders ashore nearly 3000 men, while off shore there were waiting his call as many more as he needed up to 9000. The Mexican troops belonging to the regular establishment had practically all left the city and the firing was carried out by armed citizens and straggling soldiers and policemen. As a hint of what might be expected later, the American forces sent across the southeastern part of the city a few shells from their 3 inch rifled cannon and shortly after 7 o'clock this morning these were followed by another series of shells. The personal reason for Rear Admiral Fletcher's hesitation to bombard, was that hundreds of non-combatants, including many women and children, who had been unable to get out of the central part of the city were crowded into the Diligencia Hotel building, from which most of the firing was done by the Mexicans.

NOT ANTICIPATING MUCH TROUBLE.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Members of the House Military Affairs Committee including Chairman Hay, decided today not to concur in the Senate amendments to the volunteer army bill, but to ask for a conference with the Senate. They did this believing that the need of raising a volunteer army for Mexican service is remote enough to justify delay caused by the conference.

PASSPORTS NOT DEMANDED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Senor Algara, the Mexican Charge, said at the Embassy today he had received several messages from his government which indicated that he might be recalled at any moment, but that he had not yet been ordered to ask for his passports. He looked for such an order to come at any time, he said. Secretary Bryan denies that O'Shaughnessy has been asked by Huerta to leave Mexico.

O'SHAUGHNESSY SEEMS TO HAVE DISAPPEARED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—Secretary Bryan at 1:15 said he had received no word from Charge O'Shaughnessy since Monday. The last message from Mexico City came from the American Consul late Tuesday forenoon.

Bryan appeared worried about O'Shaughnessy and today cabled him to report about conditions in Mexico City. The Secretary was sure, however, that if anything had happened to O'Shaughnessy, other legations in Mexico City would have, through their home government, informed the United States. Press reports have stated that telegraph wires from Mexico City to Vera Cruz were cut yesterday, which would probably account for lack of information.

Consul Canada in a dispatch to the State Department this afternoon said that he had so far been unable to establish communications with the American Embassy at Mexico City. He said a house to house search was being made through Vera Cruz, and many arrests of armed Mexicans were being made.

2000 FEDERALS ASK PROTECTION

By Associated Press.

Eagle Pass, Texas, April 22.—Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, was evacuated by the Federal garrison early today after a night of wild excitement.

This morning more than 2,000 refugees came to the American side of the Rio Grande for protection. General Guajardo's forces are now camped at Fuentes, three miles south of Piedras Negras, waiting for trains to transport them to Saltillo.

Crowds marched through the streets shouting "death to the gringos" until the cry became a chant in every street. Excitement became intense and then came the announcement that General Guajardo was preparing to evacuate. In a few minutes a rush for the American side of the river began. The volunteers who had just been proclaiming their intention of fighting the Americans soon were sending their families to the American side for protection. At 1 o'clock this morning, the international bridge was blocked by refugees. The bridge finally was closed by immigration officers. A company of U. S. soldiers and customs and immigration officers opened the bridge at dawn, and within three hours about 2000 persons had crossed and Piedras Negras was almost deserted.

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 22.—General Gustavo Maas, commander of the garrison at Vera Cruz, left the city in a carriage at noon yesterday, an hour after the first boatload of American marines landed from the warships. This was stated officially today and it was also declared that he had not been seen or heard from since. The commander's family followed him in another carriage. It was stated that the Mexican troops from the garrison of Vera Cruz were turned loose as soon as it was seen that the Americans were about to land and were told to act as they saw fit. Very few, if any, of their officers remained with the Mexican soldiers, whose operations were carried on without anyone to direct them.

AMERICANS IN FULL CONTROL

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—The White House gave out the following statement:

"Dispatches received from Consul Canada at Vera Cruz at 1:10 p. m., announced that the American forces are now in complete possession of the city; that apparently no fatalities among American and foreign non-combatants has occurred, and that firing had ceased, except for occasional picket shots.

MEXICANS ARE INFLAMED

By Associated Press.

Eagle Pass, Texas, April 22.—All Federal forces have been ordered by the Mexican General Maas to concentrate at Saltillo, to repel the "American Invasion." Last night when the people of Piedras Negras learned that American marines had occupied Vera Cruz, a dozen recruiting offices were opened and arms issued to volunteer companies as fast as organized. More than 1200 volunteers, it was said, enlisted during the evening.

TWO HUNDRED MEXICANS DEAD

Rear Admiral Fletcher Reports the Seizure of Mexico's Principal Port, After a Sharp Exchange With Mexican Garrison—Firing Still In Progress According to Latest Reports. Admiral Badger Arrives at Scene of Hostilities and Is Ordered to Divide Fleet.

Washington, April 22.—American marines and bluejackets are now in possession of Vera Cruz, the principal port of Mexico.

The seizure of the city cost the

Americans four lives and 20 wounded, while the Mexican losses have been estimated unofficially as between 100 and 200 men.

The first shedding of blood came when the Mexicans under General Maas opened fire on the American landing force from Admiral Fletcher's fleet. With the firing of these shots, the last hope of avoiding an open declaration of war disappeared. The United States will now be forced to move against Mexico with all the force of its tremendous military and naval power. No attempt was made here to conceal the tremendous consequences that are likely to follow the developments. It means the expenditure of millions of dollars and the risking of thousands of lives.

While no formal action was taken, it is believed by officials that Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy will be immediately recalled from Mexico City and the Mexican charge at Washington, Senor Algara, will be given his passports without delay.

The first news of the fighting at Vera Cruz and the seizure of the city came in this report from Admiral Fletcher, received at the navy department.

"Tuesday, in face of approaching northern, landed marines and sailors from Utah, Florida and Prairie and seized custom house. Mexican forces did not oppose landing but opened fire with rifles and artillery after our seizure of custom house. Prairie shelling Mexicans out of their positions. Desultory firing from house-tops and streets. Hold custom house and section of city in vicinity of wharves and consulates. Casualties, four dead and 20 wounded."

This bulletin was followed in about an hour by another dispatch from Admiral Fletcher, which read: "Holding the vicinity of the railroad station and the yards and desultory firing continues; also holding the vicinity of custom house and cable office."

This dispatch was filed at Vera Cruz at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 6:50 o'clock, Vera Cruz time, Admiral Fletcher sent this dispatch: "Our men are firing only when fired at. We prepared a flag of truce with message to General Maas to cease firing or our big guns would be used. Now about 1,000 marines and sailors ashore. All business here suspended."

Soon after this the state department received the following dispatch from United States Consul Canada at Vera Cruz:

"Marines and bluejackets landed, immediately taking possession of cable office, postoffice, telegraph office and customs. Have also railroad, terminal and yards, with rolling stock. Notwithstanding the firing from house-tops, we're masters of the situation so far, without the use of heavy guns. Firing all around the consulate, several shots having struck building. Our men simply defending themselves. Some resistance from naval forces soon silenced by guns of the Prairie. At this time reported four men killed, 20 wounded. Several Americans, including some women, who refused to go aboard refugee ship, now marooned in hotels within firing line. Trains from Mexico City did not arrive."

CAPTURE OF VERA CRUZ

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 22.—The first gun was fired in the war with Mexico at 1:05 Tuesday afternoon. Marines and bluejackets from the Utah, Florida and Prairie seized the custom house of Vera Cruz without opposition. Leaving a guard at the entrances to the custom house, the American forces took up positions commanding the streets leading toward the central square of the town, the Plaza de la Constitution. Machine guns and field guns were placed in position to cover all the streets converging on the square.

Admiral Fletcher's orders were that the landing forces should occupy these positions and make no attack on the Mexican troops unless they were attacked themselves.

Scarcely had the troops placed the guns in position when Mexican soldiers appeared on the housetops overlooking the square. Two shots rang out. Within a few minutes three volleys came from a Mexican force several hundred yards from the positions occupied by the Americans. These volleys were replied to immediately by the bluejackets and the firing became general.

When Rear Admiral Fletcher was informed of the attack on his men by the Mexicans he ordered the guns of the fleet to open fire on the positions occupied by the Mexicans.

Captain William M. Rush of the Florida located a large force of Mexicans firing on the United States troops from the towers of the Benito Juarez lighthouse and ordered his men to open fire on this point. Several three-inch guns were trained on the lighthouse and the tower was struck three times, silencing the enemy's fire.

Captain Bush signalled to the transport Prairie, on board of which was Admiral Fletcher, as follows: "Am being attacked from the right and rear north of the round; shell that district."

At the same time it was noticed that sharpshooters lined the roof of the Mexican Naval academy and were sniping the bluejackets. A three-inch gun of the Prairie was trained on the academy and the soldiers were forced to abandon their position.

The shooting by this time had become general all over the city. At 3 o'clock the United States consulate had been struck by several bullets.

Two American bluejackets and two marines were killed and nearly a score wounded. The dead are: Schumaker, coxswain of the Florida; Polsette, seaman of the Florida; Haggerty, private of the marines; another private, name not given.

The name of the wounded so far as known are: C. J. Leahy, N. Schwartz, G. Cameron and J. F. Please, of the Florida; Gisburne, electrician of the Florida; Davidson, Drains and McMillan, privates of the Second regiment of marines from the Prairie.

Under the heavy firing warships the Mexicans were driven from the center of the city to the eastward, where they attempted to make a stand. The Prairie turned her guns to the point where the Mexicans were gathering and forced them to take refuge in the narrow streets thereabout.

BORDER MEN FEAR RAPINE AND MURDER

Washington, April 22.—Fear for American lives in the border towns has increased. Secretary of War Garrison admitted the receipt of two telegrams from places along the border expressing citizens' fears that murder and rapine from inflamed Mexicans in cities will overtake them. These messages were immediately dispatched to General Bliss with orders to investigate and report. The secretary of war said he had received several such messages, although frequently investigation had developed the fact that citizens' fears had little ground. In actual cases of danger, however, he has ordered quick action to prevent any Mexican onslaught.

FOIL PLOT TO KILL HUERTA

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—That a plot is under way in Mexico City to assassinate General Huerta, dictator of Mexico, was revealed here by Felipe Armenta, Constitutionalist representative, and Adolfo Carrillo, consul in Los Angeles, for the Constitutionalist. Armenta displayed a telegram from Mexico City stating that Huerta was going to be killed within a few days and by the hands of his own federals.

"It means," said Armenta, "that the federals are becoming tired of Huerta's dictatorship. He is becoming dangerous to them. They will put him out of the way. It will not be long. Developments are going to appear very rapidly, but now is no time to make public."

Both Armenta and Carrillo say they do not believe Huerta's life will be spared another week.

BRITISH ARE KEEPING OUT

London, April 22.—The foreign office steadily adheres to its attitude in regard to Mexico which was adopted at the very outset of the trouble between that country and the United States. Additional proof that no change in this attitude is contemplated is furnished by the fact that Sir William George Tyrell, private secretary to Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, accompanied King George and Queen Mary and the foreign minister to Paris. Sir William would not have left London if any action was contemplated by Great Britain. The foreign office does not expect that there will be an anti-foreign outbreak in Mexico.

Tombstone, Ariz., April 22.—Fifteen members of Troop B, Tenth cavalry, are being held by Constitutionalist troops, at a point just below the border between Naco and Hereford, Ariz. The troops, who were on border patrol, wandered across the line without being aware of the fact. It is reported they were surrounded and taken prisoners by a large rebel detachment. Troop A, Tenth, left Fort Huachuca to investigate.

SPAIN'S DESIRE ONE FOR PEACE

Madrid, April 22.—The government's interest in the Mexican situation is naturally predominantly concerned with the fate of Spaniards in that country. Premier Dato expressed his gratification at the willingness of the United States to protect the subjects of Spain. More than 600 of these Spaniards have been repatriated on the initiative of Spain, but the safety of many of them depends upon Generals Carranza and Villa, and for this reason the intervention of the United States is of paramount importance. Senor Dato said the prospect of armed action by the United States and Mexico causes the greatest concern here, as the consequences are incalculable. The government, he said, earnestly desires a peaceful solution of the trouble.

Business and the Law

In the shifting of the burdens as humanity travels along the highway of time and year by year makes progress toward conditions better for man collectively and better for man individually, one extreme follows another.

When the burdens of society become too heavy for the individuals—when business becomes so prosperous that it oppresses the individual—the other extreme follows and the burden is shifted from the individual business.

Only a few years ago business was the all-important subject of consideration. Toward its preservation and extension all efforts were directed.

Now we are perilously near, if we have not already reached, the other extreme.

Business and property have not only been denied beneficial legislation, but have had directed against them so many regulatory legislative enactments that the attitude of society toward business might be properly characterized as hostile.

There is no denying the claim that big business as it was conducted a few years ago was a positive detriment to the individual and it was essential that something be done for the individual if he was to preserve his identity.

Many students of political affairs, however, believe that unless business interests are given more favorable consideration by the legislators and the executives, an era of business depression, which will be disastrous alike to business and to the people generally, cannot be avoided.

The time has come to encourage rather than to discourage business, say the men who have watched these eras come and go and who have lived through times of business depression and had the opportunity to study the cause in the great school of experience.

Great business interests too much hampered and hedged about by regulatory provisions cannot, in the very nature of things, expand.

It is seriously contended that right now there exist too many restraints upon business activity, and that the people, through legislation, have already reached the limit which business can endure without serious effect on its growth.

Few thinking people will dispute the assertion that it is time to listen to the demagogue and that the time is here right now when men must put patriotism above policies, get right down to existing conditions, find out to just what extent the people have gone in regulating and hedging about business enterprise and determine whether or not we have not gone too far.

Any man who thinks business can endure many more burdens in the way of hostile legislation is mistaken.

The time to cast up accounts, at least, is here and sober minded men must take the helm of the ship of State and direct its course if we would prevent business depression.

Business has a tremendous task to adjust itself to new conditions—conditions which the great majority of people believe will prove highly beneficial as soon as the readjustment to conditions has been accomplished.

It would be well, practical men of affairs believe, to call a halt in the enactment of regulatory laws until business can adjust itself to those we already have, at least.

Poetry For Today

THE FLEET SAILS.

Down through the smother of the gray mist; through the dull-shot silver morning,

We watched a proud ship steaming with a ribbon in her hair,

And the men's red blood beat faster in their veins to see her there.

And we said: "She flies the flag that lifts for no man's scorning!"

Wind shook the water into music, as a great hand shakes a zither,

And suddenly we saw the flag flame through the torn mist's lining.

And tears were in the women's eyes, but the men's eyes were shining.

And we said: "She sails for honor's sake, so God go with her!"

Out to the sky's gold and the blue sea, and the wide arms o' the morning,

We saw our proud ship steam away with all her grim guns sleeping,

And the women's hearts were breaking slow, but the men's hearts were leaping!

And we said: "She is the thing that lives for no man's scorning!"

Trinidad, Colo., April 22. — Forty-five dead, more than two-thirds of them women and children, a score missing and more than 20 wounded, is the toll in tragedy and death known to have been taken by the 14-hour battle which raged with uninterrupted fury between state troops and striking coal miners in the Ludlow district.

The militia, which drove the strikers from their tent colony and, it is charged, fired it, burning many women and children to death—Latest News of the Great Industrial War in the Colorado Mining District.

On the surrounding hills, sheltered by rocks and boulders, 400 strikers await their coming, while their ranks are being swelled by grim-faced men who tramped overland in the dark, carrying guns and ammunition from the neighboring union camps. Allen Greeks and Austrian miners have appealed to their consular representatives for protection, and John McLendon, president of the local union district, wired the Red Cross in Denver to be prepared to render aid.

On the outcome of the engagement today may depend the fate of the strike. Both sides face it as a battle to the death with no thought of quarter asked or received.

No train service through the war zone is permitted. A command of the troops is hemmed in on three sides by the strikers' lines, which extend back three miles. Through this cordon only the dead wagon is allowed to pass.

In Trinidad the situation is no less acute. Men through the streets about the union headquarters with the picture of their flaming tents still before their eyes and demand guns with which to work vengeance upon the militia, whom they hold responsible for the destruction of their homes and the death of their women and children.

The Ludlow camp is a mass of charred debris, and buried beneath it is a story of horror unparalleled in the history of industrial warfare.

In the pits which have been dug for their protection against the rifle fire, the women and children died like trapped rats when the flames swept over them. One pit uncovered disclosed the bodies of 10 children and two women. Military authorities here admitted they did not know how great the loss of life may have been.

GIRL IS A CANDIDATE.

Oregon Woman Wants to Be County Treasurer—Her Platform.

Astoria, Ore. — Though two women have thus far declared their intention to run for county offices, only one has filed. Miss Kate Kelly, scarcely out of her teens, daughter of William Kelly, who is expected to file for the nomination of state senator on the Democratic ticket, filed her petition with the county clerk, announcing her candidacy for county treasurer.

Miss Kelly two years ago managed her father's campaign for councilman. Kelly lost by twelve votes, though he was running against an experienced politician and did not enter the race until the last minute.

In her platform she says, "If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office perform the duties of such office faithfully and with due regard to the interests of all the people of Clatsop county." As her policy she declared for "honesty, efficiency and economy, prompt and courteous treatment to all."

Mary McRae is circulating a petition, for county clerk on the Democratic ticket.

ALL EQUINE LOVERS PLEASED WITH SHOW

Second Annual Horse Show Closed
Last Night With Another Large
Audience in Attendance.

AWARDS ARE MADE AMID GREAT APPLAUSE

Fire Animals Exhibited and Splendid
Entertainment Offered Fills Crowd
With Enthusiasm—Sale Opens Today With Hundreds Consigned—
The Herald Furnishes News of
Mexican Trouble.

Reaching its climax in Tuesday
night's performance, the 1914 Horse Show goes down in the annals of past
events a pronounced success—a success both from the viewpoint of bringing into added prominence Fayette
county's rank in the horse world and
that of giving distinctive entertainment to hundreds who came from a
wide radius of territory.

As if to atone for the belated winter of Monday, Tuesday flooded the
earth with golden sunshine and was
an ideal day for the show. Many
from a distance prevented from attending Monday by the weather,
came Tuesday and the huge pavilion
held practically as large a crowd as
on the previous night.

The matinee attendance was much
larger.

At both performances the latest
Associated Press dispatches, in regard
to the Mexican situation, received at the office of The Daily Herald were
read. With each announcement of
a bulletin received, the hush of fearful expectancy fell upon the audience.

In the afternoon, when the U.
S. fleet had been ordered to take Vera Cruz, Price's band burst forth with
the "Star Spangled Banner," while,
simultaneously the crowd rose, all
along the speedway. Three cheers
for Uncle Sam followed and the band
followed with America, the people
swayed with patriotism. But, at night when came the first unofficial
news of the toll of war, four of our
men dead and twenty wounded, there
was only silence, the mass of people
saddened as one man.

The splendid music of Price's Premier band added greatly to the success of the show and the numbers of
Tuesday night were judged the best
of the show, especially popular was
the introduction of singing to the
band accompaniment.

The clever work of the Nelson
Comiques made a decided hit at all
the performances, and the troupe was
presented with a cup at the close of
their last entertainment.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

More cups went to local exhibitors
on Tuesday than on Monday.

Horses from the Chas. Allen stables
especially the Bond fillies, were big
winners Tuesday afternoon and
evening, taking either a cup or ribbon in every event entered.

Miss Anne Bierley, of Columbus,
who showed some of the finest horses
of the show, was given a generous
share of the evening's applause, her
superb driving arousing enthusiasm.

Frank Jamison, the plucky little
son of Mr. B. F. Jamison, and his clown pony, also came in for great
applause. The Jamison pony won
cups in every pony event.

The features of the afternoon show

were the saddle class and artillery
remount class. The judges found it
very hard to make a decision in the
saddle class, the cup finally going to Musselman and Wood, Franklin, Ind.
The big field of exhibitors in the Remount class was cut down by the
ruling out of all but three, which
were considered by the judges, eligible to the requirement of the army.

The classes of the evening were
among the best of the show.

Horsemen generally pronounced,
Mabel Stafford, entered by W. E. Stafford, of New Carlisle, winner of two
ribbons, one of the handsomest show
mares ever on the speedway.

The Ohio Horse Sales Co. are receiving congratulations generally up-
on the show, and the prospects for
the greatest sale since its organization.

The sale opened this morning with Auctioneer Pease in the stand. Having 375 horses to sell in three days
the sale begins at 9 a. m. continuing
to 5 p. m., and again in the evening
at 7 o'clock. This is the only possible
way to dispose of such a large number of horses in such a short time.

Active in the management of both
show and sales are W. J. Galvin,
manager of the Ohio Horse Sales Co.;
Chas. Allen, owner of the sales' barn;
Judge Rell G. Allen, secretary of the Ohio Horse Sales Co., since its organization in 1912; Frank Woodland,
editor of the Horse Journal, and Howard C. Allen.

MANY FARMERS WATCH EXPERT

Pruning and Spraying Demonstration
Held on A. L. Smith Farm in Paint
Township Yesterday Draws Quite a Crowd of Interested Farmers Who
Profit by Instructions Given by Mr.
Cruikshank.

A large number of deeply interested farmers attended the pruning and
spraying demonstration given on the
A. L. Smith farm in Paint township,
Tuesday.

The demonstration which was given
under the direction of the College
of Agriculture, Ohio State university,
was in charge of Mr. R. B. Cruick-
shank, who personally directed the operations. After an interesting talk
at the beginning of the work in which
he explained in detail the fundamental principles of pruning and
spraying, Mr. Cruickshank then demonstrated in the orchard how these
operations should be carried out.

In outlining a plan for the season's
spraying operations, the expert said
in part: "Orchard insects are divided into two great groups—biting insects and sucking insects. The biting
insects are killed by the use of
stomach poisons such as arsenate of
lead and paris green. These are mixed at the rate of two or three pounds
to 50 gallons of water. This strength
is effective against the apple worm,
curculio, caterpillars, slugs, and other chewing insects. For best results
against the apple worm and curculio
the spray must be applied immediately after the fall of the blossoms. For
the sucking insects such sprays as
lime-sulfur, kerosene emulsion and whale-oil soap are used. They are usually applied during the dormant
season.

"The two chief sprays used against
orchard diseases are lime-sulfur and Bordeaux mixture. The lime-sulfur
is used for the dormant season and
early spring sprays. The apple scab,
peach leaf curl, and sooty fungus are
the chief diseases fought with this spray. The Bordeaux mixture is a stronger fungicide and more risky to
use but must take the place of lime-
sulfur in fighting the various summer rots of the apple. Bordeaux mixture is made by taking four pounds
of copper sulphate or blue vitrol and
dissolving it in 25 gallons of water.
In another vessel make a paste of
four pounds of stone lime, or six
pounds of hydrated lime, in 25 gallons of water and then unite the two mixtures. It is important that this spray be used the same day it is made. Bordeaux mixture is used as fungicide, for the eradication of plant
diseases, such as the bitter rot and Arkansas blotch.

"For the soft rots of the peach,
plum and cherry the self-boiled lime-
sulfur has proved the best spray.
Eight pounds of flowers of sulfur are
slowly mixed with eight pounds of
good stone lime, which is being slak-
ed. The heat from the slaking lime boils the sulfur. In about 15 minutes the solution is cooled by adding
enough water to make 50 gallons.
This is applied about one month after
the petals drop and again about one
month before the fruit ripens."

The demonstration was given in
one of the best fruit neighborhoods
in the county, and was of great benefit to those who were present and
witnessed the work and heard the
instructions offered by Cruickshank.

LAD PAINFULLY INJURES LIMB

Joe Wyman, 15 years of age, suffered a painful injury of one leg
while engaged in playing ball on the English addition diamond Tuesday
evening.

The lad was making a plunge for
"home" when his leg struck the home
plate, which was a sharp piece of metal or stone, and one knee was so
badly cut and bruised that the limb
was useless for some time.

Climbing upon his wheel the
plucky lad used one foot in riding
home, and it was necessary to help
him off the wheel. He believed his leg was broken, until a physician examined it and found that the bones
were not fractured.

BLAZE DAMAGES CURREN RESIDENCE

Fire, starting in the roof of the Mrs. John Curren residence on West Court street, caused considerable damage to both house and household goods, about nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

The blaze is believed to have been caused from a defective flue and the fire was gaining headway very rapidly when the fire department was summoned by neighbors who discovered the flames and smoke issuing from the building.

Some difficulty was experienced in reaching the fire, but within a few minutes after the stream began playing on the house the danger of destroying the building was past, and after much work the last ember was extinguished.

The water did much damage to the interior of the building and to furniture, while the flames damaged the roof.

NEW HOLLAND POSTOFFICE IS ROBBED DURING NIGHT

Thieves Use Snuff to Prevent Bloodhounds From Taking Their Trail, and Leave the Office After Obtaining 45c and Refusing to Touch the Safe Containing Several Hundred Dollars Worth of Stamps—Local Talent Suspected.

Snuff and candles played an important part in the robbery of the New Holland postoffice about one o'clock Wednesday morning, and the thieves evidently made the purchase of both articles during the past few days. This may lead to the arrest of the robbers.

When Postmaster Wm. Briggs went to the postoffice at New Holland early Wednesday morning a glance was sufficient to tell him that the office had been visited by robbers during the night, but he was greatly relieved to discover that the only thing missing was 45c in change which had been removed from the cash register, while several hundred dollars worth of stamps had not been touched.

door, using a stick to pry it open, but failing in this they entered the front door, evidently using a skeleton key.

Once inside they made a thorough search of the office, using candles to light their way. The safe had been tampered with, but no effort made to crack it. Several sheets of stamps, left outside the safe, were not touched, and the man or men had withdrawn without obtaining anything but the 45c from the cash register.

Before leaving the office the burglars scattered snuff all over the floor, and then scattered a quantity about the outside in order to prevent bloodhounds from taking up the trail. A crumpled white paper, containing a quantity of the snuff had been thrown aside.

While no definite clew was left behind for the New Holland authorities to work upon, they have reason to believe that the guilty parties are perfectly familiar with the surroundings, and probably reside in New Holland.

Postmaster Briggs has reported the robbery to the postoffice department, and a detective will be placed upon the case at once.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR INSPECTION HELD

Garfield Commandery Gives Banquet Following Annual Inspection and an Evening of Pleasure is Enjoyed—Large Number Attend First Inspection Held in Handsome Lodge Home in the Masonic Temple.

Notably a red letter occasion in Garfield Commandery No. 28, K. T., was the annual inspection and banquet Tuesday night.

It was pronounced by the inspecting officer, Deputy Grand Commander Nelson Williams, of Hamilton, one of the largest and best inspections with which he had ever been connected, and Garfield Commandery was entitled to great credit for its splendid work, handicapped as it had been by the burning, re-building and furnishing of the present beautiful Temple.

The inspector was surprised at the splendid progress made in the work and will make enthusiastic report to the Grand Commandery.

Eighty-five Sir Knights were seated for the banquet, served by the ladies of the Order of Eastern Star, and one of the most perfect banquets they have ever served. The long tables, beautifully decorated in scarlet carnations and greenery, were arranged in the form of a cross.

There were no toasts, the work of the evening demanding the time.

Eminent Commander Elmer Klevner, had the admirable work in supervision, Warden W. T. Holmes assisting, in charge of the music, Dr. L. P. Howell was the evening's soloist.

Sir Knight Walter Hamilton had the splendid floor work in charge, with Sir Knight A. M. Bush, captain of the finely trained drill squad.

The Temple degree was conferred upon Amos Thornton, Jr., whose grandfather, Mr. Amos Thornton is the oldest member of Fayette lodge.

The Knight of Malta work put on by Sir Knights A. T. Baldwin and Lee Des Martin was highly commended by the inspecting officer.

Sir Knights were present from Jeffersonville, Greenfield, Mt. Sterling and New Holland.

Miss Maude Cox, of Parretts, was the guest of her sister, Miss Minnie Cox and Dr. Rankin for the Horse Show.

Root Makes Most Striking Address of the Session.

ASSAILS THE ADMINISTRATION

Proposition Justifying the President's Course and Method of Solution of the Mexican Situation Both Attacked and Defended in the Upper Chamber—Bitterness Marks the Debate—Senate Substitute to Pass.

Washington, April 22.—The resolution from the senate committee on foreign affairs, justifying the use by the president of the army and navy in Mexico solely on ground of Tampico insult to flag, passed the senate, 72 to 13. Many who were opposed yielded at the last minute on ground that country practically is at war, and the president should be supported. The resolution will go to the house and will be a substitute for the resolution originally presented by President Wilson, aimed at Huerta by name.

News of the killing of American seamen and marines in the streets of Vera Cruz served further to inflame the members of the senate. The amendment of Senator Lodge (Mass.) expressing in a new preamble the feeling that it was not so much the course of the de facto government of Mexico as the deplorable general conditions in all parts of the stricken republic, the killing and despoiling of Americans and the state of anarchy there existing, which made necessary such action on the part of the president, is gaining supporters.

At the same time it is evident that, regardless of the protracted discussion of the resolution, it will be the resolution as prepared by the senate committee on foreign relations and not the personal attack upon Victoriano Huerta framed at the White House and introduced in the house of representatives by Chairman Flood of the committee of foreign affairs, which eventually would pass.

The delay of the senate is proving a grave embarrassment to the administration. At the war department it is frankly admitted that the debate is holding up action by that department of the government.

The most striking speech of the whole debate was made by Senator Root of New York, who attacked the administration's foreign policy in harshest terms. The speech of Senator Root held the attention of the senate for more than an hour. As he proceeded, railing at the Democrats for alleged conspicuous inefficiency and deplorable inaptitude in their handling of the international relations of the United States, some of the Democratic members of the senate squirmed in their seats.

Senator Kern of Indiana, the Democratic floor leader, endeavored to obtain unanimous consent to vote upon the resolution at 1 a. m. Immediately Senator Bristow, Republican of Kansas, objected. He said that there were many senators who desired to speak upon the resolution now pending.

ENEMY HOLDS MANY YANKEES

Vera Cruz, April 22.—The second section of the train from Mexico City, filled with refugee Americans, and a special train of refugees, have both been held up somewhere along the road to Vera Cruz, presumably by General Maas. There are several hundred Americans in Mexico City, including the charge d'affaires, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, his wife and child. Mexicans here protest vehemently against the suggestion that the passengers on the stalled trains may be badly treated.

THEN AND NOW

THEN.

Seventy-six years ago today the first vessel to cross the Atlantic ALL the way under steam arrived in New York harbor at 10 o'clock at night. It was the Sirius, a coastwise steamer chartered from an English company by Junius Smith, a Connecticut Yankee to beat out another British vessel, the Great Western, for the glory of being the first real trans-Atlantic steamship. The Great Western, which had left Europe three days later, arrived in New York only a few hours behind the Sirius.

The Savannah had crossed the Atlantic nineteen years before but she had used steam only during three days of the voyage. The Sirius made the trip from Cork, Ireland, in eighteen days, making the last of her historic run by burning her extra spars and forty-three barrels of resin.

A great crowd gathered at Jones' wharf to celebrate the arrival and huge bonfires were built along the waterfront to light up the boat.

NOW.
Today a trans-Atlantic sailing

ship is as rare a sight in almost any port as was a steamer seventy-six years ago. Today more than half of all the world's vessels are propelled by steam. It has been an important factor in the successful penetration of the two polar regions, it has carried a great fleet of American battleships around the world, and almost daily with engineering improvements it has established some new speed record.

A modern swift mail steamship can make nearly five hundred miles a day. Using the Suez Canal and the new gate-way at Panama, such a ship could encircle the earth in nearly a straight line in less than fifty days—a voyage of 23,000 miles.

The old Sirius in her day would have had to encircle Africa and South America and make a journey of nearly 35,000 miles. At the rate at which she made her first trip across the Atlantic she would have required practically seven months.

Relief From Constipation

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark-brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O. Advt.

FLASHES OF NEWS

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—Serious fighting on the part of the Mexicans began early today. Had appeared to have been concluded during the night. There was an occasional shot from the roofs, sometimes even within the American lines, and it was unsafe to traverse the streets. Americans have not yet occupied the central part of city, and more fighting may be necessary before town is in their possession.

Vera Cruz, April 22.—At dawn a number of bodies were seen lying about the streets beyond the American lines. Accurate estimate of Mexican casualties was unobtainable this morning. No further casualties on American side. No attempt made during the night to approach center of city. Of wounded on American side, four are serious. Admiral Fletcher hesitated to approach the city, but Mexican sharpshooters made the use of artillery almost imperative to prevent sacrificing American lives.

Washington, D. C., April 22.—8:58 a. m.—Huerta has requested the U. S. to withdraw Nelson O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City. This was stated on good authority, but not officially announced.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS MAY VOLUNTEER

The local situation in connection with the Mexican trouble is rapidly assuming an aspect which looks very much like a large number of volunteers from this city and county will offer their services to Uncle Sam to carry the flag to the ramparts of the country whose dictator refuses to salute Old Glory after repeated insults had been offered it.

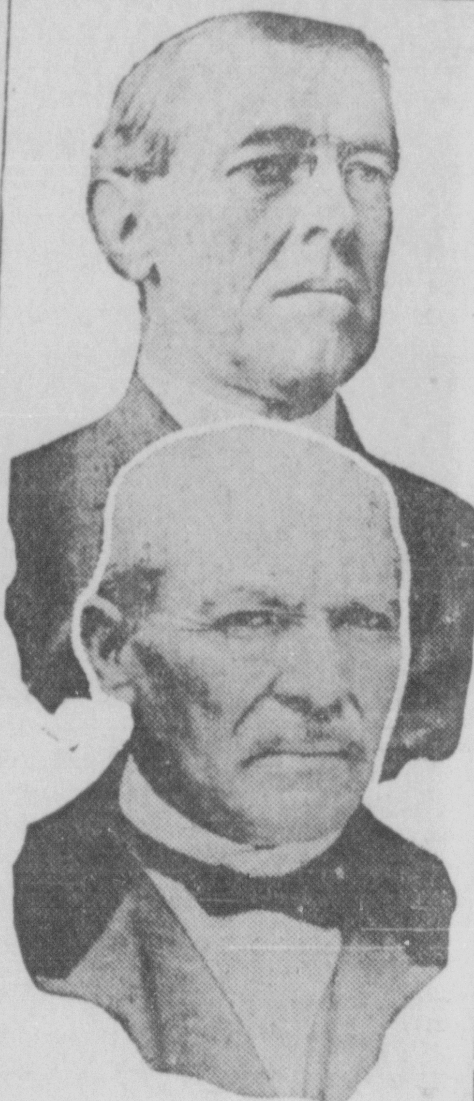

A special meeting of the Spanish-American war veterans has been called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock, to be held at the armory, and it is claimed that the meeting is called with a view to ascertaining how many will volunteer for service if their services are required in the evident approaching conflict.

Quite a number of the members of former Company E. 4th O. V. I. are expected to attend the meeting. Company E, when organized for service in the Spanish-American war, was under the command of Captain Wm. L. Vincent.

In addition to the meeting tonight it is announced that there is every indication that within the next few days a recruiting station will be opened in this city, and a large number of enlistments are anticipated.

Some Sentences!

The champion speller of congress has on tap a great assortment of stories dealing with words and spelling.

One of his linguistic feats is to reel off a sentence of twenty-six words, each word beginning with the successive letters of the alphabet, like this:

"A boy cannot dig easily for gold; hence, if just keeping lead melted needs oxygen put quicksilver, rapidly saturated, timidly under vitriol, when rebec's yean zeolites."—Popular Magazine.
